The Good News for Debt Investors

- We are aggressive in expanding our business

- But conservative in our balance sheet management
  - "Too much cash" is a strategic advantage in our view

- "Optimal" or "Efficient" balance sheet (i.e. leveraged) in good times may be a strait jacket in bad times
  - In extreme cases, they can lead to financial collapse

Guiding Principles:

- Diversify funding sources
- Tap long term debt
- Nurture new debt markets
- Aim for market clearing transactions
