2 Forging Strategic Alliances To Accelerate Growth

Strategic Investment In Tujia.com International (S$67.7m) & Set Up Of A Joint Venture (S$54.2m)

• Led consortium to invest over S$120 million in China’s largest and fastest growing online apartment sharing platform

• Capitalise on Tujia’s unique business model and technological capabilities
  — Ascott’s serviced residences in China are now available on Tujia’s website for booking, expanding reach to more customers online
  — Ascott plans to add on serviced residences outside China on Tujia’s website in 2016 to reach out to the rapidly increasing outbound Chinese travellers
  — To tap on Tujia’s business network to access more projects, including penetrating into mass market segment which opens up for a bigger pie for growth
This investment allows Ascott to better integrate its offline resources with Tujia’s online capabilities to participate more strategically in the O2O space.

- From 2007 to 2009, founded the online vacation apartment rental company, Escapia, in USA.
- Escapia was acquired by HomeAway, which was listed in Nasdaq since 2011
Tremendous Market Potential In China

- Since entering China in 1998, Ascott, through its 3 renown brands, has established a market leading position with over 14,000 apartment units in 77 properties across 24 cities.
- Traditional business model of acquiring good quality real estate and entering into management contracts with strong partners in China continues to be relevant.
- Rising middle class in China will propel huge increase in consumption across a variety of sectors – Ascott sees tremendous opportunities in the serviced apartment sector.
- Technology is a key enabler for Ascott to rapidly tap on these opportunities and to deepen the penetration of the Chinese domestic market.

Top-tier Apartment Rental Market:
- Market share ~ 10% to 20%
- International brands
- Rental > RMB 10,000 per month

Mid-tier Apartment Rental Market:
- Market share ~ 20% to 30%
- Relatively less competitive segment
- Rental RMB 3,500 to 10,000 per month

Low-tier Apartment Rental Market:
- Market share ~ 50% to 70%
- Relatively more competitive segment
- Rental < RMB 3,500 per month

Key Market Drivers:
- Rising domestic demand for serviced apartments driven by (1) fast growing corporate and leisure travels and (2) rapid urbanisation of Chinese cities.
- Burgeoning mass market demand for serviced apartments under monthly rental of RMB 10,000 or daily rental of RMB 500.
- Chinese consumers show strong receptivity for consumption via online and mobile platforms.
Win-Win Collaboration With Tujia

- Strategic collaboration with Tujia:
  - US$ 50 million investment in Tujia; Ascott CEO appointed to the board of directors of Tujia
  - Formation of a joint venture with Tujia with initial capital of US$ 40 million; Ascott will take lead in operating and franchising serviced apartments

- Ascott to achieve the following business objectives:
  - Enable Ascott to gain access to the fastest growing online apartment rental space in China
  - Rapidly build operations scale and competitiveness across our value chain, and to deepen Ascott’s leadership position in China
  - Ascott can leverage on the collaboration to kick start its franchise business in China after acquiring key franchising capabilities through its investment in Quest in 2014
  - Flow through benefits to Ascott’s global business riding on the strong wave of Chinese outbound travels to overseas business and tourist cities where Ascott has strong presence
  - Leverage on Tujia’s unique business model for promoting more innovative business solutions and identifying new business segments to fuel Ascott’s future growth in China
  - Utilise new technologies and online platforms to better service Ascott’s customers, build ‘stickiness’ and lower our cost of customer acquisition
